

George Washington to Thomas Jefferson, January 14,
1792, from Thomas Jefferson and the National Capital.
Edited by Saul K. Padover.

Washington to Jefferson and Madison WASHINGTON TO JEFFERSON AND MADISON

[January 14, 1792.]¹⁸

¹⁸ Date received, according to the Jefferson Papers in the Library of Congress, Vol. 69, p. 12068.

The P. begs that Mr. J—and Mr. Ma—would give the enclosed letters from the Commrs.¹⁹ an attentive perusal, and the whole of that business a serious consideration before nine oclock tomorrow morning, at which hour the P—would be glad to converse with them on the subject.

¹⁹ “Copies of the letters from the Commissioners of the District of Columbia of January 7 and 9 are filed in District of Columbia Letters and Papers in the Library of Congress.” [P. 458 n, WRITINGS OF WASHINGTON, Fitzpatrick, Vol. 31.]

Friday Morning.

[Jefferson Papers in the Library of Congress; p. 458, WRITINGS OF WASHINGTON, Fitzpatrick, Vol. 31.]